THE 1962

PEAK

A SHADOW OF OUR PAST —
 PROMS, PARTIES, AND PAPER DRIVES
 A FOOTBALL GAME WON AND A SCHOOLBOOK LOST.
 TEACHERS, UNDERSTANDING, KNOWLEDGE
 FREELY GIVEN, CLASS RINGS AND COLLEGE PLANS—
 WE OF THE SENIOR CLASS FONDLY
 DEDICATE TO THESE MEMORIES

THE 1962 PEAK

TO THE CLASS OF 1962

For complete happiness and success your inescapable responsibility is the unceasing cultivation of your talents and capabilities.

You have my best wishes toward the culmination of this objective.

Congratulations and many, many thanks for your educational, social and athletic contributions to Medfield High School.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas A. Blake

Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Blake, Superintendent

TO THE CLASS OF 1962

The new experiences you will encounter after graduation must be met with vigor and determination. Face these experiences with confidence and common sense and you will be successful.

My personal best wishes go with you as you graduate. Congratulations to the Class of 1962 and you as an individual.

Sincerely,

Charles F. Mains

Mr. Mains, Principal

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Mr. James T. Frame, Chairman

Mr. Warren E. Stubblebine

Mr. Joseph H. Donahue

Mr. Alton H. Hartford

Mr. Walter Frank

We of the class of 1962 would like to express our appreciation to the Medfield School Committee for making the new Junior-Senior High outstanding.

Thanks to their planning we have enjoyed many new fields of learning, the use of the new gymnasium facilities, and a separate auditorium. Their job is of utmost importance in providing for the youth of Medfield and they have done it well.

FACULTY

The scope of our learning has been broadened by the addition of nine new teachers to our already-superlative faculty. To all our faculty we extend our thanks for the patience, guidance, and knowledge which they have imparted to us.

ABUDI KOBAI

Nineteen year old Abudi Kobai, born in Kenya, Africa, has attended Medfield High School this year as a special student. His hope is to attend an American University and eventually to secure a law degree. He has been afforded this educational opportunity by the Unitarian Church.

Abudi Speaks to the Seniors

After a long struggle for the most precious thing in life, education, we are now called upon to end our journey in Medfield High School—yet our achievements are but half through.

The liberal ideal, freedom of mind and spirit, from all-inhibiting emotions, is particularly valuable in our contemporary world. An open mind is mandatory in realizing the true goals of civilization. If it could be easily achieved it would be very little prized and in the long run would be lost. Our real purpose is to respect, to honor, and to recognize every human being. The spirit of Medfield, freedom of mind and brotherhood of man, can never be obliterated, it can only grow and spread its growth throughout the world. As we continue to maintain an open mind we shall be a part of Medfield and Medfield shall be a part of us.

KINDERGARTEN - 1949-50

CLASS HISTORY

'58 was the year
That our class began its career.
Mr. Cuoco and Mr. Morris
Were the homeroom teachers for us.
For president was Bobby Bois;
Hank Lufler was the V.P. choice;
Janie Bryce recorded notes
While Patsy Buckley received treasurer's votes.
Nancy Williams and Mike Donahue
Were the Athletic Council two.
Carol Bois, along with Chan,
Hopped the Student Council van.
In some way we managed to survive
The initiation the Juniors contrived.
From our class we chose two girls
With pretty eyes and lots of curls
To form an attractive coalition
In Miss Medfield competition.
At the end of the year we said good-bye
To Nancy McKenny and Joy Guy.
And so it was we left for good
The unhappy state of Freshmanhood.

But as I'm sure you all remember
We were back again the next September.
Our Sophomore class was divided in half
By two lucky members of the teaching staff.
Mrs. Pederzini was given a portion
While Miss Smith received the remaining good fortune.
Our officers in order precise
Were McMahon, Carreiro, Sutcliffe, and Bryce.
We started the year with a record hop.
We did everything from waltz to bop.
Ruth Decker and Hank moved to new stations
Causing two of the year's migrations.
Tommy Belmont and H. Tezak
Went away and didn't come back.
In this year we said good-bye
And lost Glenn Ours to Newton High.
Peggy Frick was the only new member
To come before the next September.
Our Miss Medfield candidates were mighty nice
Cathy Iafolla and Janie Bryce.
Our class had cheering tryouts licked,
Monie, Jane, and Patsy were picked.
June brought with it the closing date.
Kerrs had a party to celebrate.
And so it was we managed to whip
The unhappy state of Sophomoreship.

Alas! We found we had suffered through
 Only half of our years and we still needed two.
 Thus as Juniors we returned that fall
 To try and complete another haul.
 One homeroom was for Mr. Dargan;
 For Mr. Morris was the rest of the bargain.
 We had a meeting to see how things stood
 And elected officers in the order we should:
 First came president, and that was Chan,
 Then Peggy was elected his right-hand man.
 Maureen was secretary our Junior year
 And for Jane the treasury became a career.
 Now we were in a superior situation
 And our first endeavor was initiation.
 Since this was a year of elections
 We held a hop with patriotic selections.
 When the Christmas season came around
 With the party spirit we were bound.
 We played "Sing Along With Mr. Morris"
 While Mr. Kreshpane acted for us.
 For Mr. Dargan all we can say
 Is he made us laugh in his usual way.
 In this season we helped finance
 The Junior-Senior Christmas Dance.
 The Miss Medfield Dance was a Junior chore.
 We made the arrangements and even more
 We placed before the judges eyes
 Jane and Peggy and to our surprise
 No one fell or spoiled her dress
 And the event was considered a great success.
 But a greater achievement than all the rest
 Was our Junior Prom, as you might have guessed.
 And when it came to banquet time
 We fed the Seniors a meal sublime.
 Our number was reduced in a flash
 By Rusty McEleney and Tibby Ashe.
 According to this vanishing mode
 Wayne Bennet also hit the road.
 Although three members disappeared
 George came with Ed and the class was cheered.
 And so it was we had withstood
 The unhappy state of Juniorhood.

We returned again for the final time
 Which means I soon will end this rhyme.
 When we received our final appellation
 We found ourselves in a new situation:
 Brand new school, rules and teachers,
 Beautiful gym complete with bleachers.
 The paper drive brought financial gain.
 A record hop was our next campaign.
 The school was not the only thing new,
 There were Larry, Sarah, Ed Bayliss, and Drew.

Back to us from the smallest state
 Came Jim Gagliani, another class-mate.
 The yearbook staff worked week after week
 On the 1962 "PEAK".
 George was the president we elected
 Maureen was the V.P. we selected.
 Patty Kerr was the secretary we chose,
 And Jane retained the treasurer's woes.
 Nancy DeSorgher, along with Drew,
 Were the Student Council two.
 "Tammy Tell Me True" was the school play,
 In which the Seniors showed the way:
 Lorry, Donna, Jim Gags, and Larry,
 With Ron and George had parts to carry.
 As Seniors a banquet was our due,
 Respectfully given by the Junior crew.
 Chiffon, silk, nylon, and lace,
 Tuxedos, flowers, beauty, and grace
 Together composed a breath-taking sight
 We shall always remember Senior Prom Night.
 The final event of our last year
 Was also the conclusion of our career.
 The strange thing about graduation
 Was the sadness of the situation.
 The fact we had neglected our years
 Was realized that night in tears.
 And so it was we did depart
 From our Senior year with a sadden heart.
 As the years separate friends
 And the carefree times of our youth ends
 And wisdom is born as fantasies die
 We shall remember our days at Medfield
     High.

CLASS PROPHECY

We had come to Boston to participate in the 1975 World's Fair at the invitation of an old classmate, GEORGE SWEENEY, who is now President of the United States. We were personally greeted by George and his charming wife, who invited us to dine on the Fair grounds at the beautiful and elaborate Ho-Jo's. The hostess JANE BRYCE led us to the table occupied by RONNIE GOGUEN and PATSY BUCKLEY. Patsy is the first women Secretary of State, and Ronnie is Secretary of the newly-formed Department of Entertainment in the President's Cabinet. Patsy told us that she had just heard PAM PETRIE speaking on her experiences as a missionary in Kenya, Africa, where ABUDI KOBAL is now Prime Minister. Abudi, we learn, is at the Fair's U.N. Plaza conversing on Afro-American relations with ROGER ADAMS, the U.S. delegate to the United Nations.

After a delightful dinner Ronnie coaxed us into accompanying him to "The History of Entertainment", which was his Department's contribution to the Fair. When we entered the theater we bought some popcorn from that Master of Corn, DREW HILL. Representing the vaudeville era were JIM GAGLIANI AND MONNIE McCARTHY doing the soft shoe; to bring back the circus era was that strongest of strong men TOM CEBROWSKI; and the Sizzling 60's were recalled by our own Twistin' Kids, PATTY MAYER and ED ROY.

After the show we went to the popular Beat-Nik Bar operated for the Fair by JOYCE HUTCHINS. The feature attraction was KIP WATT's "Kingdon Trio", in which ED DUGAN's mumbled rendition of his latest poem was accompanied by Kip on the bongos and ED BAYLISS on the flute. As we left we heard the lovely voice of LORRY GORDON, who is now a famous opera star, over the public address system.

The next day we attended a Fashion Show sponsored by the First Lady. There we saw CAROL BOIS, designer of the Show's fashions. Sitting with her was FRANNY McCARTHY, who is now coiffeur for the First Lady, and who created the hairstyle worn by CATHY IAFOLLA, who was modeling in the Show. Reporting on the Show was PEGGY FRICK, who now owns, operates, and publishes her own newspaper.

From there we proceeded to the center of the Fair grounds. On the way we saw BOB GUSTAVSON, an electronic technician, repairing the merry-go-round so that FAYE SLANEY's sixteen lovely daughters and single son might have a ride.

The Fair's central attraction was a beautiful pool and fountain surrounded by banks of flowers, all designed by BOB BOIS, now a famous landscape architect. The flowers had been flown in by pilot ERIC BORMAN and airline hostess NANCY DeSORGHER. A slight mishap occurred when Nancy accidentally pressed a wrong button and Eric was ejected. The plane landed in the bay, but LARRY "ADMIRAL" DEWEY rescued them, and PATTI KERR, head nurse on Larry's ship, patched up poor Rick.

The Fair's Grand Finale was to take place in the giant sports arena, where every sport was represented by its greatest performer. As we took our seats we saw MARY McCARTHY, now Sister Mary Elizabeth, with a group of children she had brought to the Fair from an orphanage.

Then the parade began. We were proud and happy to see some more of our old classmates in it. There was handsome MIKE DONAHUE, star tackle of the world's championship football team. Then came BRUCE JOHNSON, who had added two more feet to his height, and earned the title of Basketball's All-Time Great. Following him is NANCY WILLIAMS, coach of the Women's Championship Basketball Team. A little further on is JIM McMAHON, 1975's King of Baseball. For racing fans SUZANNE SPENDER had become the most famous and successful breeder of race horses, and we see her now leading her prize-winning stallion in the parade. A different sight meets our eyes as, representing the Roller-Skating Rinks of America, ANDREA CARREIRO, free style champion of the world, performs on a miniature rink. Accompanying her is DONNA SUTCLIFFE, who owns and operates the largest roller-skating rink in America.

Our attention is now drawn to the center of the arena, where a huge rocket ship is to be launched as an ending to this greatest of all World's Fair. Climbing into her seat in the nose of the rocket is SARAH EDDY, first lady astronaut. Sarah waves, dons her space helmet, and signals that she is ready. CHAN MENDELSON, designer of the ship, starts the count-down—10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1, 0, Blast off!

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1962, being exceptionally sound of mind, and possessing an unsurpassing amount of judgment and almost superhuman understanding, do, after deep consideration, make and declare this our last will and testament

To Mr. Blake we leave the hope of finding his own private office far from the odors of iodine.

To Mr. Mains we leave a short-cut to school.

To Mr. J. H. Morris we leave a new detention list.

We leave Mr. Langton to his philosophy.

To Mr. Cuoco his four headaches in Review Math leave a bottle of aspirin.

To Mr. Laverty we leave a peaceful fourth period study.

To Mrs. Stahl we leave a pair of sunglasses, a beret, and a director's chair for next year's production.

To Miss Smith we leave a correspondence course in the fundamentals of airconditioning.

To Mr. Higuera we leave a bicycle to get to school faster.

To Mr. Keyes we leave a bottle warmer and the news that there will be many sleepless nights ahead.

To Mrs. Potter we leave a typewriter "fix-it" kit.

To Mr. Hogan we leave a new group of library aids.

To Mr. Hersee we leave some rock n' roll records so that he can learn the "pony".

To Mrs. Richardson we leave a radar set to retrieve those extra cookies.

To Mrs. Pederzini we leave all our used paperbacks.

To Mr. Loughlin we leave a life supply of ink for all his creative writers.

To Mrs. Warburton we leave a mechanical memory.

To Mr. Reddy we leave ten dead rabbits, three frogs, two crabs, and a worm.

To Mr. Davidson we leave the junior class to get into college.

To Mrs. Kelley we leave 52 unused time-outs.

To Mrs. Luttazi her senior girls leave a solid gold rocking chair.

To Mrs. Cobb we leave our appreciation for the attractive displays in the show cases.

To Mr. Bibby we leave all the women drivers in the school.

To Mr. Carbone we leave two miles of typewriter ribbon and an eraser.

To Mr. J. E. Morris we leave thanks for his help in making our Junior Prom possible.

To the freshman class we leave the news that there is no Santa Claus.

To the sophomore class we leave a part in those Jr.-Sr. parties.

To the junior class we leave the first two rows in the auditorium.

Patty Kerr leaves chemistry to anyone brave enough to try it.

Roger Adams leaves Mrs. Pederzini's translation of Virgil with pleasure.

Lorry Gordon leaves to Mary Sheridan the title of being the youngest in the class.

Ed Bayliss leaves his "Gift of Gab" to Nina D'Angelo.
Patsy Buckley leaves the teachers with more Buckleys to contend with.
Jane Bryce leaves the chemistry lab in one piece with Mrs. Warburton hiding behind her desk.
Eric Borman leaves a broken-down projector to Cameron Daley.
Bob Bois leaves his green thumb to Ricky Suereth.
Joyce Hutchins leaves her dancing ability to Ralph Baker.
Tom Cebrowski, about time, leaves.
Maureen McCarthy leaves Katey's apartment to the Junior class gang.
Mike Donahue leaves the ninth grade girls in tears.
Mary McCarthy leaves on four flat tires.
Ed Dugan leaves personal typing to the freshmen.
Francis McCarthy leaves behind all the things she's forgotten.
Drew Hill leaves his basketball ability to Jay Halloran.
Donna Sutcliffe leaves all the boys at Rol-land to her cousin.
Jimmy Gagliani leaves his 30 volume address book for the Junior boys to divide among themselves.
Nancy Williams leaves a mighty big pair of sneakers to be filled.
Bruce Johnson leaves 8 inches of his height to Kippy Bryce.
Sue Spender leaves her knowledge of horses to Karen Magnussen.
Ronnie Goguen leaves to have a cigarette.
Carol Bois leaves still saying, "Je ne comprends pas" to Miss Smith.
Kip Watt leaves a bottle of No Doz pills to some sleepy junior.
Nancy DeSorgher leaves a hat full of her corny lunch room jokes.
George Sweeney leaves his credit card at Rick's Auto Body Shop to some needy junior.
Peggy Frick leaves her spare time to Nancy McGary.
Jimmy McMahon leaves his curly locks to Doug Vliet.
Patty Mayer leaves her title, "Queen of Detention", to Eilene Queenie.
Ed Roy leaves his ability to twist to Steve Larson.
Cathy Iafolla leaves Wiggles behind.
Pam Petrie leaves her natural blonde hair to Margie Stubs.
Sara Eddy leaves her civics class regretfully.
Larry Dewey leaves Karen Toney to Mike Horgan.
Andrea Carreiro leaves rope climbing to Melissa McQuillan.
Gus leaves contentedly.
Faye Slaney leaves her voice to Pam Clarridge.
Chan Mendelsohn leaves in his TR3.

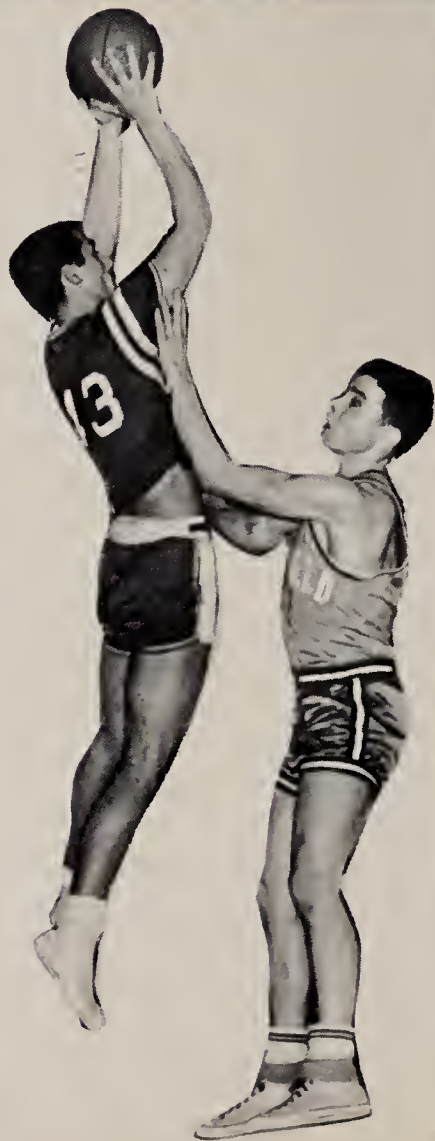

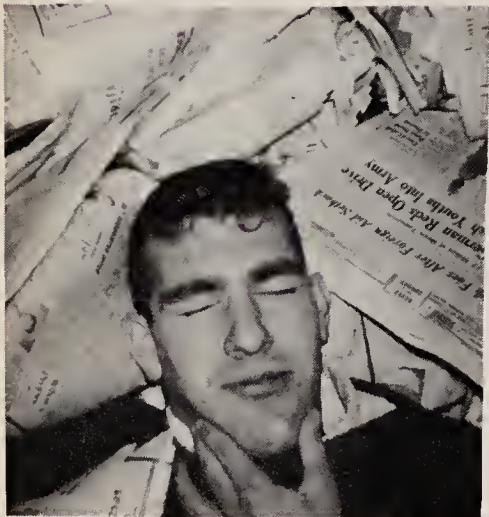

In witness whereof, we have subscribed our name and afixed our seal, this the twelfth day of February, in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-two.

The Medfield High Football Team started its youth movement this year, and won two games. The boys and Mr. Keyes worked very hard this year and the whole school is looking forward to many successful seasons to come. Much of the starting team is returning next year; this includes the backfield of Mike Rogers, Doug Vliet, Bruce Allen and Jeff Cook. The team is bound to improve, so everyone turn out to support the boys. The "Peak" wishes the team the best of luck in the future.

TO MR. HIGUERA

Dear Mr. Higuera,

To you we owe a great deal more than this page is able to repay. Your mature mind has influenced and improved every aspect of this book. You have made the 1962 "PEAK" a treasure we shall cherish, and in prizing it, we shall recall your aid with gratitude.

This tribute is inadequate. We find it most difficult to express our appreciation, for it is impossible to indicate the extent to which we have valued your help and guidance.
